at  BRADLEY University

Where You Resonate

Music Minor

Open to all students by audition, strengthen your appreciation for music through courses in theory, history, music ensembles, applied lessons, and more. The minor can easily be paired with majors from across the university.

If you definitely want music to be a big part of your life but you're not sure if you want it to be your day job, Bradley's dual degree program allows you to pair music with a second major or minor.

MUSIC at Bradley Music Performance

If you're an experienced performer who wants to pursue a career onstage or as a university professor, consider a music performance degree. Imagine performing in a symphony orchestra, touring with a Broadway production, singing in an opera company, or playing on a cruise ship. Our program hones your talent, allowing your inner voice to resonate.

Ms. Gillian and Mr. Jack

The music education program prepares you for the State of Illinois Professional Educator's License for K-12. You'll participate in classroom field experiences all four years. Bradley faculty and your supervising teachers are valuable mentors throughout the process.
